

FAQs

- What is my objective?
- My objective is to do good for the people of Barbados and do right by them

- What area of Barbados do you represent?
- I represent Christ Church West. However, my love and care extends to all bajans.

- Are you confident you will win the next general elections?
- I believe that only time can tell. As of right now, I am getting extremely positive feedback from the people of Barbados. I am sure I stand a good chance of winning my seat.

- You are not a born Barbadian, how do you expect to get the people's respect?
- I may not have been born in Barbados, but, I have lived here for over 40 years of my life. I have three children born and raised in Barbados. Respect will come when respect is given. Go ahead, walk down the roads in the Christ Church West region and ask people about me. You will find they have nothing to say but positive and loving things!

- You have a deep middle eastern accent, how do you expect to relate to the people?
- As I have said many times, LOVE NEEDS NO ACCENT. On a one on one basis, people understand me and grow to love my personality. Actions speak louder than words, I have no worry about not being able to relate to the people of Barbados because eventually they will all see my good actions and that in itself will speak for me.
